Chapter 1 by Story Wars

You think this isn't real. You think that these are just words. You think that these stories you type are just sent to some server somewhere where it will sit, gathering dust.

You're wrong.

Words have power. They grant you the power to create worlds and topple universes, and yet you toss them around so carelessly, so blatantly, so blindly. The Unworthy should never deign to create new things out of words, less they destroy themselves.

Well?

Are you worthy?

Chapter 2 by Katherine Sun

Why do I even ask? You don't even know. You don't even CARE. And so your venom comes spewing out of your mouth like fire, without a careful moment of hesitation. You poisonous spit burns people you love, people who have never done you any wrong.

You hurt them. You feel guilty. You hurt yourself.

You make yourself sick. You hold it in. You hold it in. You hold it in. How can you hold it in?
